SANDERS NOMINATES BRYAN MIN FOR APPOINTMENT TO THE SAN DIEGO CONVENTION CENTER CORPORATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

San Diego – Mayor Sanders has nominated Mr. Bryan B. Min for appointment to the San Diego Convention Center Corporation Board of Directors.

Mr. Min is the President & Chief Executive Officer of Epsilon Systems Solutions, Inc., a firm he founded in 1998, which provides technical and operational solutions to government, commercial and non-profit clients. Epsilon serves clients in an array of areas, including: Environmental Management; Fleet Engineering; Homeland Security Systems and Consulting; Nuclear Operations Program Assessment and Implementation; and Systems Engineering and Logistics. Prior to his business career, Mr. Min served as an Officer in the United States Navy as a nuclear trained Submariner promoting to the rank of Lieutenant then continuing his Naval service as an Officer in the Reserves where he promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

Mr. Min holds a B.S. degree in Industrial & Systems Engineering from the University of Southern California and an MA degree in Systems Engineering from Virginia Polytechnic & State University. In addition, he attended the OPM Management Program at Harvard Business School and is a Certified Nuclear Engineer from the Naval Nuclear Power/Engineering School.

In addition to Mr. Min's business and educational accomplishments, he has served several boards and institutions including the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Councilors at the University of Southern California's School of Engineering. Mr. Min and his family reside in Council District 1 in the community of Santa Luz.

Mr. Min will replace Mr. Eric Rivera, whose term has expired, for a term ending December 1, 2008.
